WHAT MANNER OF MAN IS THIS?

Jesus was man when He was born a baby in Bethlehem wrapped in swaddling clothes and cradled in His mother's arms . . .

But He was God at the age of 12 when He answered with authority the questions of the doctors of the law in the Temple in Jerusalem.

He was man as He lay asleep on the pillow that evening in the ship tossed by the storm on the Sea of Galilee . . .
and His disciples cried, "Master, Master, carest thou not that we perish?"

But He was God when He arose and walked through the boat now filling with water and surveyed that violent sea and raised His hand and said, "Peace, peace, be still,"
and hushed the sea to sleep.

He was man when He shed bitter, salty tears over the death of His beloved friend Lazarus . . .
But He was God as He stood at the graveside and cried, "Lazarus, come forth."

He was man when the devil took Him into a high mountain and showed Him the kingdoms of the world, their glory, riches, and power, and said,
"All these will I give you, Jesus, if you will fall down and worship me."

But He was God when He said, "It's finished," and flung the bridge over the chasm separating us from God.
And ever since, people have been coming to God through His death and resurrection.

He was man when they took His body, His lifeless form, down from the cross and laid it in a newly made tomb and rolled the stone into its place, and sealed it with the signet of Pilate, the Roman Governor . . .

But He was God on the third morning when He burst the bonds of death and stood there alive forevermore
in pure immortality, and said,
"Because I live, you shall live also."

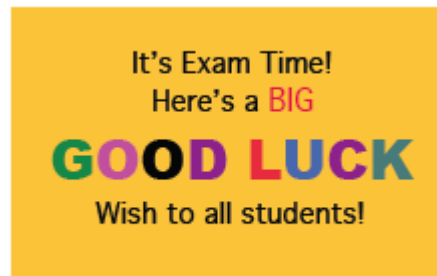

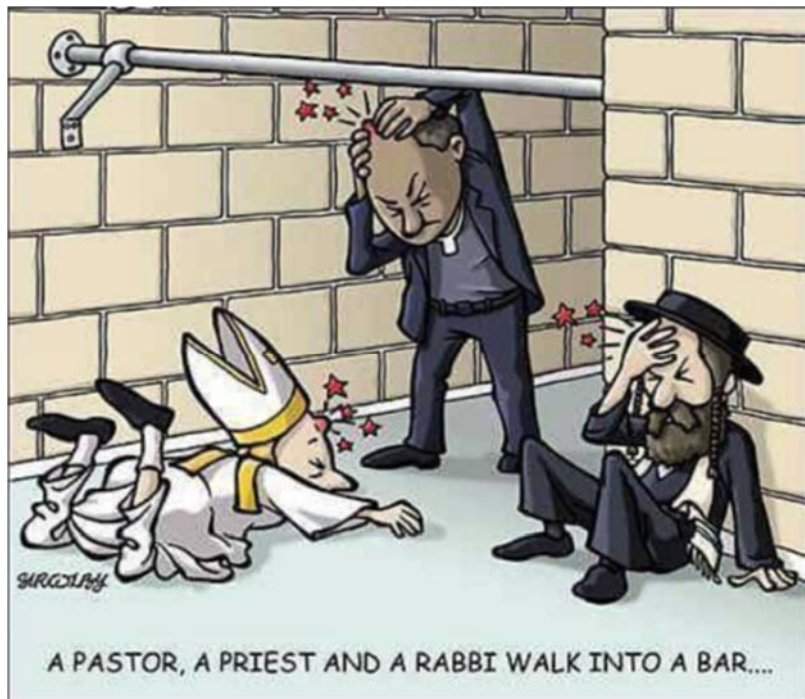

Jesus Christ is God's affirmation of our humanness, yours and mine.

As man, He is God identifying with you at the point of your need, sitting where you sit and feeling what you feel,
and saying to you, "It's all right to be human."

But He is God when He says,
"Through Jesus Christ's humanity and divine nature,
I can make you a new creature;
I can restore My lost image in your spirit and life.
I can give you abundant life.

Yes, Jesus is God's affirmation of your humanness, and also of His divine power to give you a new abundant life.
